Charlotte, NC (June 2, 2010)- Artists And Angels Against AIDS presents the first Positive Pajama Party to be held at Closet Nightclub 1202 Charlottetowne Avenue (Charlotte, NC) on Friday, July 2nd, 2010 from 7pm until 2am. The focus of the event is to raise funds to benefit the organization and its outreach programs which focus on HIV/AIDS awareness in a bold manner with an innovative approach.

The purpose of Artists And Angels Against AIDS is combining HIV/AIDS awareness and art to cater to people who avoid seeking HIV/AIDS education because they don't consider themselves at risk. This unique group has been overlooked for too long. If their comfort zone is in a club, art gallery, talent show, play or other artistic venues then that is where we will be. When they least expect to hear about HIV/AIDS we will be there armed with education, factual information and ready to fight the battle that HIV/AIDS is currently winning in the minority community.

Furthermore the project will encourage people to talk about HIV/AIDS openly and honestly helping to defuse myths, false information and fear. We know that removing the stigma of HIV/AIDS is not an easy task but with support and our dedication it can become a thing of the past," states Founder, Zetta Chandler-Roberts

The attendees of the event are encouraged to wear their pajamas and complimentary food will be served from 7pm to 10pm. Live entertainment such as a DJ, poetry, and comedy will be provided. The admission of the event is $5 between 7-10pm and $10 after 10:30pm. A portion of the proceeds will benefit the organizations endeavors. Event sponsors such as UrbanTymes.com Magazine, Closet Nightclub and many others will also be in attendance at the event.
